GENERAL NEWS.

It is announced that a single firm in New York, who are well known tobacconists, pay the Government internal revenue duties upon their manufactured tobacco, an average of $70,000 a month, and that their entire taxes, including licenses, income and other taxes, during the year, amount to considerably more than $1,000,000. The well known house of A. T. Stewart & Co., in New York, besides over $400,000 income tax, pays the Government millions of dollars annually in the shape of Contributions of food and money are coming in for the relief of the sufferers by the terrible fire in Quebec. An address appealing to the charity of the province and the world generally for relief, has been adopted. The Mayor has been authorized to ask Government aid. Large numbers of the sufferers are leaving the city to seek other homes.

The residents along the line of the Harlem railroad, says the Poughkeepsie Eagle, have had a subject of unusual interest to discuss for a few days past, which was nothing more nor less than the sudden sinking, to the depth of twenty feet, of about forty rods of the Harlem railroad track, crossing a swamp. All efforts 10 make a firm foundation for the track at this place have heretofore failed.

George Peabody has written a letter to the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop and others, enclosing instrument giving to them one hundred and lifty thousand dollars in trust for the foundation and maintenance of a Museum and Professorship of American Archæology and Ethnology in connection with Harvard University. Professor Ferguson of the National Observatory is making arrangements to take scientific observations on the expected meteoric display in November next. The subject of meteors and shooting stars has engaged the attention of eminent astronomers within the last century to a greater extent than ever before.

The Marine Bank, Savannah, Georgia, notifies the public that it is prepared to redeem all its notes in circulation, and requests all persons having its issues to register their names, and the amounts they hold at the bank, so that the sum necessary for their redemption may be known.

The chief operator of the Atlantic cable at Heart's Content denies the stories of Maximilian sending $10,000 messages every day or two to Carlotta, by the Atlantic cable. He says that Maximilian has never, himself or by proxy, sent a message over the cable.

The squirrel hunters of Solon, Ohio, had a squired hunt on the 12th. One party returned with 5,855 scalps and heads, and the other party with 4,195 scalps and heads.

The conductors on the Buffalo and Lake Huton railway were arrested yesterday, and detectives are after another of them for alleged swindling of the company.

The large manufacturing establishment known as "Chapman's Glen Woollen Mills," was destroyed by fire on Thursday, at Ballston, Saratoga county, N. Y.

A despatch to the New York Tribune from Cohoes, N. Y., says: "An extensive kitting firm in that place have suspended. The concern also manufactured axes.

PEASE-BOILED. - The Galveston News boils Ex-Governor Pease, of Texas, to a pulp, as

"After having remained here as a known Union man through the war, and after travel ling through the State, last August, as a candidate for Governor, advocating the Congressional policy of reconstruction, and denouncing the President, without meeting with even the slightest appearance of hindrance or molestation-without exciting even the anger which is often seen in the ordinary political canvasses in every part of the Union-ex Governor Pease turns up in Hartford, Conn., and proclaims publicly to an audience, that he left Texas with his family because the President's course of aclos had made it unsafe for a Union man to live in the State. "Our people are astonished without measure at this intelligence, -and no reply, except the ne direct, does justice to their feelings on the

OUR FINANCIAL SYSTEM. - Judge Abbott, of Massachusetts, in declining the nomination for Congress by the Workingmen's Convention, calls the attention of that large body of citizens 10 many difficulties under which they, as well as others, are suffering by the exciting state of things. Our system of finance and taxation, he says. "is one of the means used for making the rich richer and the poor poorer. "By means of these systems of finance and axation we have seen within the last five or six years tens and hundreds of thousands of lollars accumulated by single individuals in a thele year, and colossal fortunes built up which even more than compete in magnitude with the inheritances of the princes of the Old World. Much of this has been done at the expense of labor. A SOLDIER RETURNS HIS BOUNTY.--The U. 8. Treasurer yesterday received the following note by express, from Rock Island, Illinois,

FOR SALE AND RENT.

POR SALE.—A VALUABLE FARM, NEAR WOODLAWN, FAIRFAX CO., VA.—Will be sold at private sale, the farm lately owned by Andrew Turney, deceased, containing 235 acres, more or less.

This farm is a part of the original Mount

Vernon Estate and is situated on the Mount Vernon Road, about six miles from Alexandria and near to the Mt. Zephys Estate. About one hundred acres is in timber, much of it valuable—there are two large orchards, in good bearing order—a comfortable house, with good water order—a comfortable house, which good water order—a comfortable house, which good water order—a comfortable house, which good water order—a co order—a comfortable house, with good water and convenient out-buildings—and the whole farm is under fence.

The land is of good quality for grazing or trucking or the raising of grains.

If not previously sold at private sale, the farm will be offered at public auction on the premi-ses, on THURSDAY, October 25, 1866, at 12 o'clock m. For further information apply to Mr. Adam Martin, near Cloud's Mill, or to S. Ferguson Beach, Attorney at Law. Address either at Alexandria, Va. aug 6-eotf

THE SUBSCRIBER IS AUTHORIZED TO offer for sale the FARM of Joseph Kerby, esq. This farm is situated at the mouth of Broad Creek, on the Maryland Shore, where it empties into the Potomac river. It is an excellent alluvial soil, well adapted to the growth of all the crops usually grown in that fertile section of country. It is about four miles below Alexandria. Crops may be shipped directly from the garden. The improvements consist of a large frame dwelling, containing eight rooms, and all the necessary out-buildings, in good repair. From one hundred to three hundred acres will be sold to suit purchasers.-A rare opportunity is offered to those desiring a safe investment, or to engage in agricultural pursuits, as it will be sold at a great bargain.—
